BOOTSY & PATTI COLLINS

Cincinnati, Ohio

Patricia Ann Collins AKA Peppermint Patti was born May 6, 1957, in the small town of New Richmond, Ohio. From a very young age she had a love for health and fitness and an interest in giving back to the community. She went on to attend Ohio University and the University of Cincinnati majoring in Physical Education and Health. Her passion for giving back became a reality when she stepped into the role of President of the Bootsytowne Collins Foundation! Her mission in everyday life has become supporting the arts, lifting the self-esteem of little girls and women, as well as educating the community regarding dental health awareness. The Bootsytowne Collins Foundation is a vehicle that is used to accomplish these goals.

She also supports organizations locally and nationally. She has shared her life story through motivational speaking which details trials, tribulations, and overall success conveying it one-on-one as well as in a large forum.

In terms of community involvement, she is a Ben-Gal Alumni from the 1984 squad and still actively participates as an Alumni of the organization. From the health impact perspective, Bootsytowne and Patti are chairpersons for the Todd Portune Health Coalition promoting dental care awareness. Mrs. Collins works closely with The Center for Closing the Health Gap, is Co-Founder of Cincinnati USA Music Heritage Foundation, Co-Chair of the King Records Legacy Committee and is a Board Member of Madi's House.

CHRISTOPHER HARRIS

New York, New York

The African American Automotive Association (AAAA) is proud to announce a groundbreaking partnership with the Hidden Pioneers organization. This collaboration marks a significant step towards enhancing diversity and inclusivity within the automotive industry. Christopher Harris, Founder of AAAA, expressed his enthusiasm for this new venture: "I am excited to announce our new partnership with the Hidden Pioneers organization. Its a significant step for the African American Automotive Association towards enhancing diversity and inclusivity in the automotive industry. Often, I encounter individuals striving towards similar goals but working in isolation. This partnership changes that narrative. Our joint commitment is to educate, inspire, and actively create opportunities for diverse talents, ensuring fair representation and success in our industry. This collaboration is more than a mere alliance; it's our pledge to reshape the industry's story, driving it towards greater inclusivity and diversity."
